Parents: Why Scouting?

The Boy Scouts of America has entered a new era, serving families like we never have before. Cub Scout Packs are given the option of remaining all boys, serving boys and girls or organizing an all-girl pack.

The National Council is allowing more flexibility to meet the needs of today's families. But why should you get involved?

We all want our children to grow up to be good people, who care about others and have a strong sense of duty. Scouting reinforces those goals with the building blocks of the Scout Oath and Law, while having fun together.

Don't miss out on the adventure of Scouting. Try new things, build memories and Be a Scout.
